

Romans 1:21-25

- 21 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.
- 22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,
- 23 exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.
- 24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,
- 25 Because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever!

2 Timothy 3:16-17

- 16 All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,
- 17 that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

Scientists have what's called the instruction book of life. It's a secret book, a book of genes or our DNA. Its really not a book per say but its all the information that is coded that makes up all living things. Instruction manual to show us how tall we would be whether we had blond or dark hair, blue or brown eyes. In fact every living thing has this make up. A instruction book for our bodies to follow. We too know that there is another book OF life for life here and for after. God has a book of life as well that has all the written names to be saved in it. This book He has given us for instruction we are to follow. If we believe. Today lets examine where our devotion to life is. Is it for me or someone else? Is it for God? Remember scriptures for todays lesson can be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

1 Kings 19:11-12 Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the Lord." And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

A story is told about a foreigner who was walking in downtown New York City alongside a resident friend. As they approached a busy street corner in the center of Manhattan, the man seized his friend's arm and whispered, "Wait. I hear a cricket." "Come on!" the boy sneered, "This is downtown New York — how could you possibly hear a cricket?" His friend persisted, however, "No — seriously, I do!" As cars were roaring, horns honking, people shouting, brakes screeching, subway clamoring and people bustling about, the man began leading his friend along slowly, every now and again stopping and turning his ear. At last, the man insisted they were near and proceeded to follow the sound across the street and toward a small dark corner next to a wall. There, he bent down and pulled out the cricket. "I told, you," he said, I heard a cricket. Astounded, the New Yorker marveled "How could you have heard that cricket in the middle of all this noise?" "Well," said his foreign friend, my ears are different from yours. It simply depends on what you're listening to. Here, let me show you what I mean. He reached into his pocket and pulled out a handful of change — a couple of quarters, three or four nickels, and a dime "Now," he said, "watch this." He held the coins waist high and dropped them to the sidewalk. At once, every head nearby turned around and looked. You see, it all depends on what you're listening to. To what sounds are our ears trained to listen? Are they trained to hear the sound of money, of gossip, of complaining, of worldly things or are they trained to hear the still small voice of the Most High, directing and advising us in the way we should go? Let's ask the Lord to train our ears to hear the things of God today. We need to be listening for His direction even in with the hustle and bustle of this noisy and influential world.
