

John 12:1-8

- 1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.
- 2 Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him.
- 3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
- 4 But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,
- 5 "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages."
- 6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief, as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.
- 7 "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.
- 8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

Matthew 26:10, 13

- 10 "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me.
- 13 Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

WELCOME

We want to take this time to welcome you to University church of Christ and welcome you back the next time you are able. If you are visiting us today we would love the opportunity to meet you and greet you in person so we would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we may do so. Thank you and Welcome!

Looking for a church home? Want to study and know more about a walk with Him? Would like to set up a group or personal bible study? Want someone to talk to? Need some assistance or know of someone who does. Please take the time to meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Please take and use the invitation and mail our cards found in the foyer they are a easy way to invite those we know. Also if you want access to a great video library we have the resource just visit with the office and we can get you signed up for free with no obligation to you and you will have 24/7 online access wherever you go.

We may say we love God. But has anyone asked you how much? God wants to know the same thing. Is loving God something we say or is it who we are? Today lets review how easy it is to mistake the true value of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and apply it to our devotion and love for Him. Remember there will be a day that some will hear from Him that He never knew them. Will that be me? Can that be me? Can I see my relationship with Him grow or has it been more at arms length. We kind of know Jesus. Lets recommit ourselves to just how much it really is and if we need it to be more today can be that day. Remember scriptures used in today's lesson can be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

Isaiah 43:18-19 Do not remember the former things, Nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, Now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

For those in the Jewish faith they are celebrating what is called Rosh Hashanah which traditionally marks the Jewish New Year. "Shanah" is a unique Hebrew word meaning "to repeat, revise, or go over again." As we ourselves not long from now will begin the new year, with fall, then winter, spring, and summer, we remember the seasonal pattern of time in God's creation. The nature of life is to repeat itself to continue in a cycle. Although time is moving in a direction toward a definite destiny it does so in cycles...truly, "what goes around comes around." However, "Shanah" does not only mean "to repeat" -- but also, "to change"...So, entering this new year, a fresh cycle, we may also grasp the opportunity to change, like we say we want to every new year with a resolution. To maybe do something radically new and different. New beginnings are a time for new choices, new experiences, new hopes, and dreams. Can we allow this season to inspire the desire for new experiences toward God? Can we choose to pray for a new cycle...break out of the "same old - - same old" and choose to believe in His power to do exceedingly abundantly more than we could ask or imagine? The new season beckons us to this...And I know I am getting us all started early but if we believe that our Lord is really in charge of it all we believe that He can even redeem our mistakes, then we ought to be filled with expectation for change, great change in our lives, by His divine power to work in and through us. Entering this new season can inspire a choice in faith, to love and serve with greater devotion than ever. A new year is upon us before we know it so let's make the choice for change - - He will do a new thing for sure.
