

PRAYER

Prayer is so simple,
It is like quietly opening the door
And slipping into the very presence of God;
There in the stillness
To listen to His voice;
Perhaps to petition
Or only to listen.
It matters not;
Just to be there
In His presence
Is prayer.

GO THROUGH THE DAY WITH GOD

Begin the day with God;
Kneel down to Him in prayer;
Lift up your heart to His abode
And seek His love to share.

Open The Book of God
And read a portion there,
That it may hallow all thy thoughts
And sweeten all thy care.

Go through the day with God,
Whate'er thy work may be;
Where'er thou art—at home, abroad—
He still is near to thee.

Converse in mind with God,
Thy spirit heavenward raise;
Acknowledge every good bestowed
And offer grateful praise.

Conclude the day with God;
Thy sins to Him confess;
Trust in the Lord's atoning blood
And plead His righteousness.

Lie down at night with God,
Who gives His servants sleep;
And when thou tread'st the vale of death,
He will thee guard and keep.

LIKE A WINDING ROAD

Life is a winding road through the years that are allotted to us. It passes through pleasant valleys and over steep hills. It threads its way through the wastelands, too. No one can see far enough ahead along the road to know which he will be required to travel on any given day, but each has within him the strength for the hills and the courage for the wastelands. Only those who childishly insist that all the road must be through pleasant valleys fail.

And they fail because they never learned to use the inner strength God gave them for the hills, nor to call upon the inner courage He gave them for the wastelands.
