

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

John 10:27

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

Hebrews 1:1-2

1 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets,

2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

Numbers 12:1-10

1 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman.

2 And they said, "Has the Lord indeed spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?" And the Lord heard it.

3 Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all people who were on the face of the earth.

4 And suddenly the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." And the three of them came out.

5 And the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward.

6 And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the Lord make myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream.

7 Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house.

8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

9 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them, and he departed.

10 When the cloud removed from over the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, like snow. And Aaron turned toward Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

We may know of a certain singer or famous person just by their voice. God also has a voice. Do we listen to Him? How does one do that today? Are we truly listening to Him and for Him? Today lets examine our voice recognition to God and His voice today. Reminder that scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

EVEN ONE IS IMPORTANT

There is much comfort in the fact that the Lord does not judge us concerning the number of people who listen to us. He does not grant special blessings to the man who may preach to a thousand above a person who talks to one. Neither does He judge us on the response of those whom we try to teach. He will judge us on our faithfulness in teaching others each time we have an opportunity. The number of listeners and how they respond will remain in His hands.

If one soul listens and we are able to convert him, we have made it possible for him to have something worth more than the whole world... We cannot afford to forget the one.

In Case You Missed It

Matthew 5:9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers”...when the term “peacemaker” is used the initial thought is of someone who keeps the peace between two opposing parties. A “peacemaker” solves dilemmas often without the force of violence, although the threat of violence is sometimes present and to be used if necessary. Don’t some of you remember while growing up while watching dozens of westerns where the sheriffs - - or the good guys - - were armed with Colt 45 “peacemaker.” How ironic that one of the most famous guns of the 1800’s was named the “peacemaker.” The rationality is simply you can only have peace through strength. Interestingly enough, when you study the Hebrew New Testament, the word “peacemaker” has a completely different connotation than our understanding in English. The word peacemaker in Hebrew has a much richer meaning than simply the word peace. It can also mean completeness, prosperity, safety, contentment, health, blessing and rest. The word in Hebrew literally means to “run after” or “to chase!” So, in Hebrew it says to “chase after shalom” - - to run after God’s shalom! Peace and one can only find God our Prince of Peace! Let’s run after a deeper knowledge of our Lord and in doing so, we’ll experience new levels of peace, contentment, blessing and rest!
