We welcome you to our worship service here at University. If you are visiting know that you are our special guest and would like to invite you back and would ask if you would stay a brief moment after services so we might get the chance of meeting you in person. We are glad each and everyone of you are here today and know that you are a vital part in the work that goes on here. If you have any questions or would like to know more about the work here or would like to visit with an elder please let one of our ushers know. Again Welcome!

What do you think of when you think of worship? What is it to worship? What are each of us called to do? Today I want to take the woman at the well example with her questions and Jesus answer found in John chapter 4. Because I want all of us to know this that worship is the most powerful, joy producing, hope sustaining, life altering thing we do. In fact our life should be worship as Paul points out as being a living sacrifice and worship should not be just a service we can attend that worshipful. We all need to come to realize that what we worship determines where we go and what we do. The simple answer can be explained that we worship with spirit and truth but the question remains are we? You? I doing that? Lets take a closer look at John chapter 4.

In Case You Missed It

Psalms 70:4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

I heard a story of a chaplain who was speaking to a soldier in the hospital. “Bless you son, you saved a fellow soldier’s life — and lost an arm in the great cause doing it,” “No,” said the soldier with a smile. “I didn’t lose it...I gave it. What a unique look at service that most of our men and women understand with serving our country...the give it...their all...even their lives...and when it comes to us and our service to the Lord are we looking at it with the perspective of what I will and would be losing....or are we giving it over to Him when you think of it we have so much. The Lord has blessed many of us with good health, the use of our eyes, ears, mouths, hands, feet and minds. He’s given us various talents of sorts. He’s blessed many of us with homes, cars and good paying jobs. Most importantly, He’s bestowed upon us the wonderful knowledge of His Son, Jesus. What are giving back to Him in our service to Him? We are all soldiers in God’s great army. In the same way this young soldier gave his arm to save a life, we should be offering our gifts toward God’s great cause of salvation for the world. Let’s make it a point to start giving consistently of the gifts God has given us, whatever they may be. After all, Jesus did not lose His life — He gave it purposefully for us, no strings attached.
