

John 8:1-11

- 1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.
- 2 Early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people were coming to Him; and He sat down and began to teach them.
- 3 The scribes and the Pharisees *brought a woman caught in adultery, and having set her in the center of the court,
- 4 they *said to Him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act.
- 5 Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?"
- 6 They were saying this, testing Him, so that they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and with His finger wrote on the ground.
- 7 But when they persisted in asking Him, He straightened up, and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her."
- 8 Again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.
- 9 When they heard it, they began to go out one by one, beginning with the older ones, and He was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the center of the court.
- 10 Straightening up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"
- 11 She said, "No one, Lord," And Jesus said, "I do not condemn you, either. Go. From now on sin no more.

Isaiah 53:6

- 6 All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way; But the Lord has caused the iniquity of us all To fall on Him.

John 7:24

- 24 Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.

Matthew 7:1-5

- 1 "Do not judge, or you too will be judged.
- 2 For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.
- 3 "Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?
- 4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye?
- 5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

WELCOME

During this week especially we want to be thankful for all the great blessings the Lord has given to us as a nation, a church and as individuals. We live in a blessed country for sure. We hope that this week will be spent with family and friends if you are able. If you are visiting we are so glad you have come our way and would invite you back another time and would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of greeting you and welcoming you here in person.

Happy Thanksgiving. It's certainly a great time of year for family and with that we want you to be a part of our family if you are looking for a church home. If you have a question of us or would like to set up a group or personal bible study please take the time and visit with us. Need some assistance or know of someone who does. Please notify us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Last week we looked at the Prodigal son with a different approach. Today we are going to do the same thing with the woman who was caught in the act of adultery over in John chapter 8. We again will be asked to try on some different shoes while reading this passage. At the end of the message can we hope we can define whether we pick up rocks to quickly or slowly. Find out how do we view ourselves, like we do others? These stories that are left for us to read are to help find out where we are and to find ourselves in the story and not just read about someone else's. Today is another great opportunity of self examination and growth in our faith and our dependence on Him.
