A warm welcome to each of you as we come to worship the Lord! Each of you is very important to the Kingdom and the work that goes on here we want you to know that we love and appreciate every one of you. If you are visiting today we extend to you a special welcome and invite you back the next time you are able. If you are visiting today please stay briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. We would love the opportunity. Thank you in advance.

Its already Thanksgiving?!? Wow before you know it, it will be Christmas time. It's a year I have been thankful for so much in my life and it all starts with God and with you. I am indeed grateful for the position I serve here at University and am indeed thankful and am excited about the upcoming year. But first things first lets all take time to be thankful for what we have and what the Lord has blessed us with so we in turn can be a "Blessing" to others.

Have a question of us? Looking for a church home? Need some assistance? Wanting to set up a personal or group bible study? Please meet with us the next time you are able we would love to see how we may serve you in some way.

How much do we trust? Is it as conditional as our love? Sometimes we can find it hard to trust isn't it. What about our trust in God is it like no other or does it too have reservations. How can we learn to trust to the end? How can we learn to trust and have faith like those found in Hebrews 11. Lets see if by even baby steps we can learn to trust God even more today than we have in the past. Trust and Obey there really is no other way. And the choice my life has led me to this point. Can we all put our trust in Him even "IF"? I hope we can be an encouragement today to keep on trusting in the Lord.
