

THOUGHTS FOR THE NEW YEAR

The new year lies before you
Like a spotless tract of snow;
Be careful how you tread on it
For every mark will show

Welcome to all of you that have come to worship today. We want to especially welcome our visitors and are glad you are with us, if you would please stay around after services so we might get the chance of greeting you in person and getting to know you a little better.

I hope all of you have enjoyed the holidays spent with family and friends. My family especially would like to thank all of you with your support and prayers as we all continue to serve Him in the coming year!

Today like many end of the year and "New Years" messages of motivation I would like to use Paul as our example of "motivator" to help motivate all of us in the new year. So many set up resolutions at this time to do this or that and look for something to help us motivate us to do just that in the coming year. Paul uses so many "motivators" but I would like to examine a few that are found in his writings to help us "fire up" our faith not only in the coming year but for the rest of our lives by using what he describes as the "Love of Christ. The Cross of Christ, The Law of Christ, The Day of Christ and the Word of Christ. Let the word of God stir all of us to Love in 2013.
