WELCOME

We would like to welcome you here to services here at University. We are so glad you have come our way especially if you are visiting. If you are visiting we extend a warm welcome and invite you back the next time you are able. In addition we would also like to ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome.

We hope your holidays these past weeks have been enjoyable ones spent with family and friends. We also pray fully consider the New Year that is upon us. As we reflect upon some of the exciting things that were done this past year I am so thankful to the reach we extended to the community we live in. You may remember we had a very successful Free Garage Sale this past spring and want to thank everyone who donated some of your household goods and those also who volunteered. We also had a night where we welcomed some of the Cameron athletes this fall as we fed around 80 or so to show those around the campus we are here for them. We had two mail out campaigns and added support to a mission in the Middle East. I am so grateful and pleased to see the efforts we have put forth and can't wait for the New Year. Happy New Year. Lets help spread His word in 2017.

I have heard the expression "Love the Sinner and Hate the Sin." But today I want to propose a new way of looking at ourselves and suggest we still love the sinner, but hate MY sin. That will be the big difference when it comes to our personal evangelism. Today we will hope to examine our attitudes. Remember the scriptures for todays message can be found on the back.

Looking for a church home? Would like to set up a group or personal bible study. Need some assistance or know of someone who does please take the time to visit with us we would love to know how we may serve you.
