

A PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine master, grant that I may not so much

Seek to be consoled as to console;

To be understood as to understand;

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

WELCOME

We want to take this time to thank each of you for being here today. As we close out another year we are glad you have come our way and would ask if you are visiting to stay briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. If there is anything we can do please take the time to meet with us about it.

Looking for a church home? We would love to have you here with us. Want to set up a group or personal bible study? Have a need or know of someone who does? Please take the time to meet with us to see how we may serve you.

Remember to download our free church app at ucoclawton and stay connected!

I want to thank Kent Marcum for filling in for me today. Its good to have him back to catch up with so many he has known throughout the years. So ready or not here it is ready to close out another year. We say goodbye to 2017 tonight. We have been through and seen some new exciting things this past year but also some sad things as I reflect back and remember the contributions of those who have gone on before us. Starting with Kenneth Gregory January 1, to then Pat Horn this past summer and Brad McKinzie one of our elders in November. They will be missed for sure but their contributions to this congregation will live on just as we see Earline, Ladonna and Leroy. We hope we will all have a blessed 2018. And we hope and pray the Lord will bless University and its efforts this coming year. Happy New Year!
